DESCRIPTION:

Occupying a shore front location within Scotland's most southerly village, this is a public house/restaurant cottage which has been extensively renovated and modernised in the recent past. From the rear of the property there are superb views over the waters of Luce Bay and beyond.

Of traditional construction under a slate/felt roof the property benefits from new internal plaster work, new internal woodwork, full rewire, new insulation, partial underfloor heating, the installation of a fully equipped commercial kitchen, the installation of a dumb waiter, attractive public bar/lounge, 1st floor restaurant, WC facilities on all levels, staff WC, disabled WC, 2nd floor bedrooms, raised beer garden to the rear with views over Luce Bay.

All furniture and fixtures are included in the sale price. The property also benefits from oil fired heating, multi-fuel stove and uPVC double glazing.

This is a particularly well protected area of south west Scotland enhanced by the mild currents of the Gulf Stream and which seldom suffers from the cold extremes of winter. It is an area well known for its outdoor leisure pursuits including walking, fishing, sailing and excellent golf courses within easy reach. There are also superb sandy beaches nearby.

Local amenities within this pleasant village include a hotel, primary school, church, bowling club and general practice healthcare. All major amenities are located within the town of Stranraer some 18 miles to the north and include supermarkets, hospital, indoor leisure pool complex and secondary school. There is also a town centre and school transport service available.
