The Sheilings, Emerson Park, Hornchurch, RM11 2QD

A comprehensively remodelled house in a quiet, unoverlooked cul de sac in Emerson Park, finished to a superb standard in a contemporary yet homely style, designed to make the most of open-plan living.

Following an extensive renovation, the property is presented in 'as new' condition, with accommodation to include a large open-plan kitchen/dining/living room with bi-fold doors to the rear garden. A further, separate reception room sits to the side of this space, with a study to the front of the property. A utility room and wc/cloakroom complete the ground floor accommodation. The kitchen is well equipped, with a range of integrated appliances and a returning breakfast bar creating a break between the kitchen and living areas, which feature attractive herringbone Amtico flooring.

The first floor is accessed via a contemporary staircase and provides five bedrooms, two with luxury en-suite bathrooms. Externally the quality continues with an expanse of contemporary paving to the rear, leading to a lawn area with further paved seating area, summerhouse and storage shed. There is private driveway parking to the front to accommodate four vehicles.

Further specification includes CAT 5 cabling to principal rooms, external CCTV cameras and Nest heating control. The property has benefited from new windows and glazing throughout, a full re-wire and re-plumb, and new high-quality windows throughout.
