DESCRIPTION

A magnificent ten bedroom mansion, sitting within grounds of 23 acres or thereabouts. This truly imposing property has been renovated over recent years and this has resulted in spacious accommodation, that marries many period architectural features with the more contemporary modern day fittings.

The accommodation is extensive and is presented over three main floors, and there are also cellar rooms which were formerly the servants quarters.

HISTORY

The present Sandford Hall is believed to date back to the 1720's, and has undergone a series of extensions over the centuries, which leaves the property in the guise you see it in today, Sitting on twenty three acres of park and farm land, this fine home has been an icon of the area and continues to impress, especially when viewed from the A41 Whitchurch to Wolverhampton Road.

There has been a house on this site for many centuries, with the original Sandfords living in the property for over 800 years before selling the property in the 1930's.

During World War II the Hall was utilised by the RAF as accommodation, and officers from nearby Prees Heath airfield were billeted there.

LOCATION

Sanford is ideally placed for a number of well respected schools, including The White House in Whitchurch, Packwood Haugh Co-Educational preparatory school and Ellesmere College to name just three. The area is well served with equestrian venues, including Tushingham Arena, which is located at Tushingham House Farm, 3 miles North of Whitchurch just off the A41 to Chester.

Local recreational facilities include the highly regarded Macdonald Hill Valley Hotel, Spa and Golf Course, with a further quality golf course located at nearby Hawkestone. A short drive to Shrewsbury provides a wider range of facilities of all kinds.

SITUATION

Sanford is situated just 4 miles to the East of Whitchurch and is conveniently placed for the major arterial road networks, with the A41 leading to Chester to the North and the M54 and Wolverhampton to the South. The M54 provides excellent road links to the M6 and the M6 Toll to the east, and North Wales to the West.

A main line railway station can also be found at Whitchurch, which provides regular services to Shrewsbury to the West and Crewe to the North which connects to the West Coast Main line.

Birmingham International Airport is 60 miles distant, Manchester Airport is 65 miles distant, with Liverpool John Lennon Airport being 48 miles distant.
