Overview

A studio apartment featuring large sash windows that allow light to flood in that are also secondary glazed for soundproofing purposes. Positioned on the second floor of a period building, this studio has wooden floors, an open-plan kitchen off the main studio area and a bathroom. There is also some useful fitted storage in the hallway.

Shaftesbury Avenue runs from Seven Dials through to Piccadilly Circus where creates a border between Chinatown and Soho. Several bus routes run along Shaftesbury Avenue itself, but this studio apartment also has Tottenham Court Road (Central, Northern and Queen Elizabeth lines) and Covent Garden (Piccadilly line) within a short walk.

The apartment is available at the end of September on an unfurnished basis. Subject to contract and satisfactory references, the landlord offers a three-year lease with a mutual rolling six-month break clause. Camden Council tax band: D.

People Make Places

London is collection of inspiring urban villages and one of the most exciting places in the world to live, work & play.

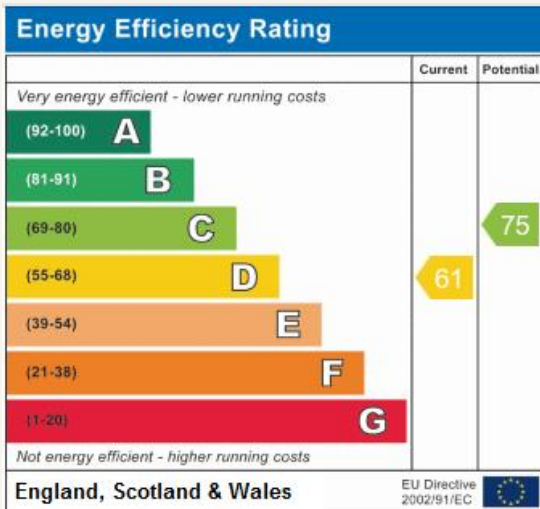

We work with both property owners and their occupiers, sharing the story of these vibrant neighbourhoods, conveying the unique soul & energy to future custodians, the people who'll keep them buzzing.

And unlike many real estate businesses we're not just about buildings, because streets & buildings don't make a neighbourhood.

We're about building relationships, because people make places.
