A three storey Victorian terraced property providing accommodation on three floors, with additional basement storage. The premises, formally used as offices provides four bedroomed accommodation with planning permission for a change of use to residential. The premises are situated close to Newark Northgate mainline railway station and within a few minutes walking distance of Newark town centre. Residents parking permits are usually available. The property has gas fired central heating and most windows are double glazed. Externally there is a rear yard and patio area.

This elegant house has a bay window elevation and spacious rooms. The building known as 'Northern Terrace' was constructed circa 1881, a traditional Victorian town residence. The property now has change of use to residential dwelling house from former offices.

The town has excellent road access to the A1, A46 and A17 trunk roads. There are two railway stations, Newark Northgate providing services to London King's Cross in just over 75 minutes and Newark Castle station with regular rail services to Nottingham and Lincoln. The A46 is a dual carriageway providing rapid access to the M1 at Leicester and Nottingham City Centre via the A52.
