Holy Island, Northumberland, TD15 2SG

Offers Over £285,000

Ref: 34

Seaburn House is located in the much sought after Holy Island, with stunning views of Lindisfarne and Bamburgh Castles and the sea. This Grade II Listed, 18th century house retains much of its original charm and character, which includes working shutters, fireplaces and internal doors.

The current owner has been running a very successful holiday let business from the house, however, it would make a superb permanent residence, or as a weekend retreat. The house is set within the heart of village, with a short walk to the shops, public houses, the Priory and Lindisfarne castle.

The spacious interior comprises of a large living room with a feature fireplace, a large kitchen with a dining area with an excellent range of units and a multi-fuel stove. On the first floor the house was originally a three bedroom property, the current owner altered the layout to create two large double bedrooms and a Jack and Jill bathroom.

There is the potential to buy the adjacent garden by separate negotiation. It has a outhouse which has planning permission to convert into a one bedroom detached dwelling.
