- Superb detached bungalow
- 2 Double Bedrooms
- Lounge & Dining Area
- Garage & Driveway
- Large Plot
- Wonderful Cul-de-sac Location
- Secluded Landscaped Garden
- Modern Conservatory
- Open Views

Located at the end of a highly sought after cul-de-sac, within the picturesque village of East Ogwell, the bungalow commands some delightful views over the village and beyond. Occupying a large corner plot the property has a wonderful landscaped garden at the rear with well-stocked shrubs, gravelled areas, neatly tended lawns, a good-sized summerhouse and a vegetable plot offering a touch of ‘the good life’.

East Ogwell is a previous winner of ‘Devon In Bloom’ and is particularly sought after. The village supports a popular inn/restaurant and an ancient church. The vibrant market town of Newton Abbot is around one mile away and offers an extensive range of shops and other amenities.

ACCOMMODATION

Inside, the accommodation has undergone much improvement over recent years and is a credit to the current owners. Off the entrance hallway is a lounge with wide, walk-in bay window. The dining room is accessed from the lounge through a wide square opening and has a door to the kitchen and patio doors to a conservatory. The kitchen has a comprehensive range of high-gloss cabinets and integrated appliances. Natural light is provided through double aspect windows and a glazed back door. The accommodation has been enhanced by the addition of a modern conservatory with tiled floor, underfloor heating and a bi-fold door to the garden. There are two bedrooms, both with a high-end, fully tiled en suite shower room with basin, w.c and tiled floor with underfloor heating. Finally, there is a fully tiled family bathroom which has been recently updated to a high standard and fitted with underfloor heating.
