This five bedroom semi-detached town house is a stylish and quirky property - the entrance to the building is via a staircase to the front of the property which overlooks Salterns Marina and the boatyard. You are welcomed via the kitchen into the open plan living/dining area. The patio doors off the lounge open onto the private terrace, outdoor furniture is positioned to maximise the sea views and there is a side gate with access to a private beach (shared with the neighbours and hotel at the end of the road). The bedrooms are split over three floors; with a bathroom on each floor. The property also offers off road parking for one car plus a useable garage which can be used as parking for an additional car.
