LOCATION

Ashton Keynes is a thriving village located about seven miles to the south of Cirencester set within the Cotswold Water Park. The village offers a good range of daily amenities to include a community shop, public house, popular primary school, village hall and playing fields. There is an abundance of community organisations.

Further information on the village can be found on www.ashtonkeynes.org.uk

Cirencester, the 'Capital of the Cotswolds' offers a greater choice of amenities to include education at all levels, a variety of supermarkets, cottage hospital and recreational centre.

PROPERTY INFORMATION

10 Rixon Gate occupies a semi-rural position on the outskirts of the village. It comprises a semi-detached mature house of traditional brick and rendered elevations that has undergone a sympathetic extension to accommodate a splendid open plan kitchen addressing modern day living. The property is beautifully presented and offers an extensive 'L' shaped sitting room, garden room with access onto the patio, fabulous fitted kitchen with island and ample space for dining. Separate utility and cloakroom.

To the first floor the house offers four bedrooms, the master with en suite and family bathroom.

The property has good frontage with established gardens, vehicular gates leads onto the driveway and single garage. Located adjacent to the rear of the garage lies the HOME OFFICE, a versatile space that could further be expanded to incorporate the garage if a self-contained annex is preferred.

The gardens are well-tended with a variety of paved terrace catching the sun throughout the day, lawns with many mature trees and heavily planted borders.

10 Rixon Gate enjoys views to the rear across a private fishing lake. Its semi-rural location afford tranquility yet within a short distance from the much sought-after village of Ashton Keynes. A viewing is highly recommended.
