THE PROPERTY

A fabulous, highly specified modern town house built to a very contemporary, exacting and exciting design on this quiet exclusive cul-de-sac on the outskirts of the beautiful village of South Newbald.

With the rolling Yorkshire Wolds as a backdrop, this well presented property will not disappoint. In brief the accommodation comprises: Entrance hall with understairs utility cupboard and integral garage, bedroom 4/study with en-suite shower room, to the first floor is a generously sized living room with French doors opening into the dining kitchen and to the second floor a large master bedroom with en-suite shower room, two further bedrooms and a house bathroom. The property enjoys off-street parking, a small easy to maintain front garden and attractive courtyard garden to the rear.

LOCATION

The property is located on a small and exclusive cul-de-sac forming Monckton Rise in South Newbald close to the junction with South Newbald Road and the South Cave/Market Weighton road (A1034).

Newbald is situated at the foot of the Yorkshire Wolds and is a well regarded residential village centred on an expansive village green with local facilities including a fine Norman church, church rooms, which are used mainly by the young people, a village hall, two public houses and a primary school. The village is well placed for access to the small market town of Market Weighton with shops, a library and Tesco some 4 miles distant, Beverley (9 miles), Hull city centre (12 miles) and York (approximately 24 miles). There is also ease of access onto the A63/M623 and national motorway network beyond. Brough is some 6 miles distant and has its own mainline railway station with direct through trains to London Kings Cross.
