Stylishly finished and centrally located, this wonderful apartment must be viewed to be fully appreciated. Completely refurbished a few years ago and further improved by the current owners the apartment is ready to move straight into and enjoys 2 double bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, communal grounds, parking and a wonderful 23 ft living/kitchen area.

Description: If you are looking for a high quality, contemporary apartment then look no further! The property was refurbished back in 2016 and has been further improved by the current owners. The finish is excellent and features a 23ft living area that enjoys a huge amount of natural light, high ceilings with ornate coving, exposed brickwork and beautiful wide plank reclaimed French oak flooring. The contemporary kitchen benefits from high quality and practical design, being linked to the living room by a breakfast bar that ties this social space together. Both of the bedrooms are doubles, one of which enjoys a recently refitted shower room and there is a further family shower room that has also been updated.

Location: Worples Road is a hugely popular residential street on the Southern fringes of Epsom Town Centre. This tree-lined road is full of character homes, some of which have now been divided up into apartments. Epsom High Street is just a short walk away as is Epsom Station which offers fast, regular links into London.
