GENERAL COMMENTS

A very spacious detached modern bungalow that has been in the same ownership for many years and in a location where properties seldom come to the open market. The bungalow has been extremely well cared for and greatly improved during our clients ownership including a bespoke fitted kitchen by "Out Of Wood" in Truro and a new double shower has been recently installed. The accommodation includes three bedrooms, (the master has a private w.c and wash hand basin), sitting room, dining room, conservatory, kitchen/breakfast room and shower room. Outside is a very private rear garden, small front garden, driveway parking and a single garage. The bungalow has double glazing, oil fired central heating and plastic fascias, gutters and barge boards. The bungalow is being sold with no chain although the client

LOCATION

Crescent Rise is located in an elevated position just above The Crescent on the western side of the city centre. The property occupies a very convenient position being tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac and only half a mile from the city centre and within a short walk of Bosvigo primary school and the mainline railway station. Residents only parking has been implemented in recent years. The parking permit is currently in the region of £50 per annum.

The city of Truro is the main commercial and administrative centre of the county and here there is an excellent range of shopping facilities with many of the national multiples including a flagship Marks and Spencer store, newly opened Waitrose and Cornish food hall, historic cathedral and lots of charming restaurants and cafes. The Hall For Cornwall is due to reopen in the spring after a major refurbishment.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
