Property Description

Greenwich Millennium Village is situated on the Greenwich Peninsula. It is situated amidst all the major shopping facilities with no less than three large retail parks housing such household names as B&Q, Sainsbury's and ASDA's. The development is within close proximity and three bus routes, which take you either to the Jubilee line station or the retail parks. There is a cinema within walking distance and North Greenwich Jubilee line station is just one stop from Canary Wharf.

The Development according to residents has had some Scandinavian Design Influence with most properties exhibiting the generic quality of lots of windows and lights, detail to material leading to lower than average utility bills and modern fixtures and fittings. It is an Eco-friendly development. There is 24 hour Porterage/security. The development has a number of different buildings named after famous scientists. This building has a lift.
