

Riseldine Road, SE23 1JU

£1800 pcm

Recently spruced up including a superb, new bathroom and new décor, this 3-bedroom period house is located a 2-minute walk from Honor Oak Park station.

Downstairs there's a light and airy reception. behind this is a dining room which open up to a fitted kitchen. Patio doors at the back lead out to a private garden where there is a lawn, a patio area and garden shed. Upstairs are 2 double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a bright modern bathroom with a bath and free-standing shower.

Honor Oak Park is a friendly area popular among young families. The station provides fast and regular services to London Bridge (in around 12 mins) as well as London Overground services northwards to Shoreditch and Highbury and Islington and southwards to Croydon.

The area's amenities include coffee shops, a deli, a beauty salon, and several high-rated restaurants including a hip Pizzeria (Mamadough), an award-winning Indian (Barbur) and a popular Italian (Le Querce). For groceries there are a number of convenience shops and a Sainsbury's local. For an evening drink, there's the recently-refurbished Chandos or the Brockley Jack which also hosts a small theatre.

The nearest primary school is Stillness, rated as Outstanding'. For older children there are several state and independent schools in the area. The area is dotted with green spaces including One Tree Hill and Blythe Hill Fields both of which boast panoramic views of London's skyline.
