

Moat House, 17 Drury Lane, Lincoln

Moat House, 17 Drury Lane, Lincoln

A truly unique opportunity to purchase a fine period residence set within touching distance of the Lincoln Castle walls. The Moat House is thought to date back to around 1870 and offers unique views of both the Castle and Cathedral from its grounds. The substantial accommodation extends to 3,110 ft<sup>2</sup> and briefly comprises entrance hall, three reception rooms, kitchen/diner, utility room, pantry, shower room and cellar to the ground floor. The first floor offers a spacious landing, three double bedrooms, family bathroom, shower room and dressing room to master. The second floor offers two further double bedrooms and spacious landing which is currently used as a work space.

The property nestles in a private walled plot extending to around 0.32 of an acre including the sloped bank. Electric wooden gates lead to a gravelled driveway with parking for 3/4 cars, brick and slate garaging with power and light and a further brick store. The side elevation is mainly laid to lawn with mature trees/planting, raised patio and pond. The rear elevation is a steep sloping garden with steps leading right up to the castle walls where you will be greeted with breathtaking views of the Castle, Cathedral and City.

LOCATION

The neighbouring Lincoln Castle was built almost 1000 years ago by William the Conqueror and has witnessed some of the most dramatic events in English history. It is a place where kings and convicts have walked, a symbol of power and punishment through the ages and home to an original 1215 Magna Carta. It is thought there was an underground passageway from the Moat House to the Castle Prison.

AMENITIES

The property is situated in the desirable Cathedral Quarter which boasts a variety of restaurants, cafes, butchers, bakery, grocer and various boutique shops. Excellent state and private sector schools, (both primary and secondary) can be found within walking distance, along with the Lincoln University, Bishop Grosseteste University. The City of Lincoln is also a few minutes' walk down the hill and is a thriving City Centre that is developing more each year.
