DIRECTIONS

Proceed from Oswestry on the B4579. At Mile End roundabout take the 3rd exit sign posted South Wales onto the A483. Continue along this road proceeding through the villages of Llyncllys and Pant. Upon entering Llanymynech turn right at the crossroads going past the Dolphin Public House. The property is on the right hand side of this road just past the village shop and Bengal Spices takeaway and notified by our "For Sale" board.

LLNYMYNECH

The popular village of Llanymynech has a range of local facilities including shop, post office, Primary School, cafe, garage, two hairdressers, three takeaways and an indian restaurant. There is a heritage centre based on the Hoffman lime kiln and the Montgomery Canal. There are also two wildlife trust reserves and a prestigious golf course at the top of Llanymynech Rock. The border runs for the most part down the centre of the village's main street, with the eastern half of the village in England and the western half in Wales. The border also passes right through the now closed Lion pub, which had two bars in Shropshire and one in the former Welsh county of Montgomeryshire. There are good road links to Shrewsbury, Welshpool and Oswestry.
