The present owners have invested in a programme of high specification refurbishment works throughout the property, effortlessly combining original period features dating back over 500 years old with an exquisite array of contemporary charm. Upon arriving to the property, you are greeted with a sweeping gravelled carriage driveway which extends beyond 70' in width, offering generous parking for in excess of ten vehicles and access to the detached garage.

The primary accommodation spans over 3700 sq ft and offers an abundance of natural light and well balanced living space. Upon entering the home you are greeted by a welcoming entrance hallway with a working wood burner alongside immediate access into a formal living room with exposed wooden beams, a second wood burner and the added benefit of a Sonos sound system. The dining room in contrast to the sitting room, has a vaulted ceiling, tiled floor and bi-fold doors opening onto a spacious deep outside terrace/entertaining space with sumptuous railway sleepers perfect for family gatherings/summer evenings. The bespoke kitchen/breakfast boast granite work surfaces, feature island and a full array of integrated fitted appliances and range cooker.

On the first floor the spacious landing with exposed beams there is access to the three bedrooms on this level. The master bedroom envelopes you in a calm and relaxing ambience with a generous amount of space, an en-suite bathroom and an opulent dressing room with bespoke fitted units. The two further bedrooms are equally charming and offer garden views. These rooms are serviced by the main family bathroom which incorporates a full white suite with Jacuzzi bath, exposed beams and white walls.

Externally, the rear garden enjoys an enviable south facing aspect and extends just over 110' to the boundary and various entertaining spaces, such as a spacious
